EDITORIAL

Could someone please explain the following results, without using the term "It's a funny old game"?

27 Jan 1987	Wycombe	11	Windsor	1
31 Jan 1987	Windsor	1	Yeovil	0
14 Feb 1987	Wycombe	0	Yeovil	1
24 Feb 1987	Windsor	1	Wycombe	5

Our promotion trail during March takes in visits to Tooting, Worthing and Carshalton, while our only home VOL fixture for the month has the 'in form' side of the moment, Harrow Borough visiting Loakes Park. We are also likely to play another home cup tie during February - this time against Abingdon Town or Wolverton in the Semi-Final of the B & B. Our only away cup draw of the season is due to take place in the unlikely surroundings of Brisbane Road, when we take on Orient in the Capital League Cup on March 11. The winners of this tie take on Barnet in the two legged final.

I saw in one local paper a reference to Yeovil as our 'bogus' team, however, there is no doubt that the 'Green & Whites' still pose a genuine threat to our promotion hopes. You can only be impressed by the professionalism, ability and enormous support the Somerset side have. In the same light, the side currently assembled at Loakes Park also have those same characteristics and let no one say that we are not good enough for promotion. We are well on the way to scoring 100 League goals and possibly accumulating 100 League points in the process. League Championship's are never won by one-off performances and I'm sure our consistency this season will pull us through ahead of the rest. Enjoy the reading.

FROM THE TERRACES by Simon Burrage.

WINDSOR & ETON: By the time this issue of C G hits the streets we will have just visited Stag Meadow for another important league fixture, so I had better not dwell on the name too long in case we have 'done a Yeovil' there, but I can't resist the temptation to nominate them as my favourite club of the month. I just can't help liking a team that allows us to trot in 11 goals almost unchallenged in a competitive fixture, and then takes 3 league points off Yeovil 4 days later. Already on Cloud 9 driving away from another fine Wycombe victory, this time at St Albans, Blues fans almost died laughing as the result from Windsor came over their radios. Such humiliation for our Championship rivals - I almost felt sorry for them... almost, but not quite.

Having mentioned St Albans briefly, I thought I should say what a pleasant ground they have at Clarence Park. Yes, it was my first visit there, and having made one or two bitching remarks about other VOL Premier Division grounds in previous issues I thought it would be nice to redress the balance a little and say how impressed I was with St Albans' picturesque home. (How gracious of me - I only like grounds we win at anyway).

Going back a bit further, didn't Bromley make themselves look berks at Loakes Park in January? We did well to come out of the game with 3 points and no-long term injuries. As for Bromley; if you're going to play it that hard - ie bordering on sheer violence - you can expect to take a bit of stick from the opposition's Supporters, especially when that opposition sticks to their task and overcomes the tactics with mere skill and resolve. But no, the Bromley 'hard men' couldn't take it could they? They completely lost their rag, and ended up resorting to threatening and gesturing at the paying public on the terraces. Rumour has it that a recent Bromley programme complains about the treatment received at Wycombe (!) I'd better not say what I think of that, the Editor wouldn't be able to print it anyway.

With the sort of form that Wycombe had been showing, the trip to Farnborough held no fears for us. Oh yeah, just another game that looks difficult on paper - we roll out of the local pub, pull up at the ground 20 minutes before the kick-off and shock horror - Noel Ashford is strolling across the car park, obviously not going to play. What could be worse than having no Ashford out there? Having no goalkeeper, perhaps? Graham Bressington between the posts for the whole game?! My first thoughts were not so much that Bressy wouldn't cope in goal, but more of how much we would miss him from the midfield because 'Rambo' had, in most peoples' eyes, been playing his best football yet for Wycombe, exerting tremendous influence in the middle of the park and scoring some excellent goals from the edge of the box. His performance as makeshift 'keeper was herioc stuff and it ensured that we got the point we definitely deserved. On the subject of excellent personal performances I must mention Kirk Corbin, who since joining from Wokingham has been quite outstanding in defence alongside Keith Barrett, and is already very highly regarded by Blues fans.

Reluctantly one has also to mention that Yeovil did their 'party poopers' act again by beating us for the 4th time this season. Still, it was nice to see nearly 2,500 inside Loakes Park for a league match. (Not quite all of them were wearing flat-caps). Those of us who have seen all 4 defeats by Yeovil can only wonder why Yeovil have been so inconsistent against the teams from lower in the table; they never look like a team who make silly mistakes when they play us anyway. Conversely, Yeovil fans probably can't see why our team has been so consistent in similar fixtures. The answer to that question, as far as I can see, is that Alan Gane's team has one main strength; it is full of players who can score goals. Jason Seacole, Andy Graham, Declan Link, Graham Bressington, Noel Ashford and Mark West have all contributed in that respect - and it's for this reason that I couldn't help wondering if it just may have been a mistake to leave two of that group, Seacole and Graham, out of the side for the Yeovil game. Mark Dawber was preferred to Jason, and Kevin Durham filled the left midfield slot instead of Andy Graham. Neither Dawber nor Durham, for all their efforts, have ever come close to hitting the net recently - goals win matches and goalscorers win matches. Get my point?

At the time of writing we have 11 league matches remaining - 4 at home and 7 away. You could say we are entering the home straight, with 11 fences still to jump. Of course, if we stumble at many of these fences we could still be overtaken before the finishing line. Whatever happens over the next couple of months, Messrs. Gane, Reardon and Teale and all the players can be congratulated for what they have already achieved this season. I suppose it will count for nothing if a sufficiently disastrous end to the season robs us of promotion, but so far, at least, there has been a quite miraculous upsurge in interest in WWFC this season. The goals have flowed, the points have been accumulating and the turnstiles have been clicking (Alan Davies' claim that Slough Town are, with the exception of Yeovil, the best supported club in the Premier Division can only have been a genuine mistake - or a joke. Mind you, judging by the struggle they are having in bumping their ground up to Premier Division standard at the moment they could well be the best supported side in Division 1 next season.)

In the Promised Land - a.k.a. the GMVC, Barnet are enjoying a similar resurgence. Remember we beat them 3 times last season (or was it 4?). It seems Barnet have chosen the right season in which to come good - after numerous seasons of relative mediocrity in the (Gola) League they are now on the verge of 'automatic' promotion in to the Football League. We wait with interest to see just how automatic it will be because there is a 'ground up to standard' clause involved. Barnet's plight for Football League status was recently discussed on a recent addition of Sportsnight. In the same programme we were also given a thorough explanation of the Play-Off system operating in the Football League this season and next. What a farce! What a circus! I always thought that the way to reduce the size of a division was to promote one less club into it than is relegated from it. Obviously this is too simple for the buffoons who devised the play-offs. The whole essence of league competition is that every club plays the same programme of fixtures and the points total decides who is top, who is second, etc. These play-offs are gimmicky, unnecessary and ultimately unfair, so why have we got them?

DO THEY MEAN US? investigated by Steve Maguire

What was your view of the recent Bromley game? David James in the Midweek was obviously not too impressed with the visitors referring to their "strong arm tactics", but Bromley were not too happy either. Their programme the following week gave their version of events at Loakes Park, complaining about the referee, the hostile crowd and even the tannoy announcements. Whilst Bromley are obviously entitled to their opinion, it seems hard to imagine that this was the first time they have ever heard a crowd 'getting on' to visiting players. Were any Bromley officials present at Fisher Athletic, I wonder, for their London Senior Cup game just two days before they played us? There the Bromley manager, Trevor Ford, had to intervene after one of his players had been threatened by a Fisher 'supporter'. Bromley's Alan Scotting (ask Mark Dawber if you don't remember him) was sent-off along with Fisher's Alan Hodges after an incident between the two players and at the end of the game, Ford had to rush over and separate Scotting and a spectator. "The Fisher crowd were really baying for blood" said Ford. With Scotting's team mate Dick Tydeman getting his marching against us, the total number of Bromley sending offs now stands at six so far this season.

Another side who have unhappy memories of a recent trip here, are Windsor & Eton. We scored so many times against them in the Berks & Bucks Cup that both of the Wycombe free newspapers lost track of the scorers! The Slough Express described the game as "a night of shame for the Royals", and Windsor's manager, John Clements said "I honestly thought we had a chance up there, but every time they got the ball it seemed to go in the back of the net".

Our next opponents were St Albans who, like Windsor and Slough, get good coverage by their local press. Three papers carried reports (two with photos) of our game which was watched by the largest crowd to see a league game at Clarence Park for many seasons. 'The Saints' programme the following week commented in the light of our result against Windsor, they didn't do too badly.

Farnborough boss Ted Pearce was quite happy with his side's result against us, saying "I am delighted. A cracking game in front of our biggest gate of the season so far. My recent concern has been in defence, but today my defenders were superb against a side that has scored 78 goals and looks set to take the title". Maybe Ted was right to be worried about his defence - in their next three games they conceded 14 goals!

While on the subject of Farnborough defenders, it was interesting to compare the performance of Sean Price with that of his old team mate at Wokingham, Kirk Corbin (surely the Player of the Month). I think most people would agree that getting Kirk on a free transfer makes the signing of Price, some eighteen months ago for a considerable fee, seem even stranger now than it did at the time. When Kirk left Wokingham to join the Wanderers, his old boss Roy Merryweather paid tribute to the defender, who had been at the club for eleven seasons and twice had been voted Player of the Year. "Kirk has been a tremendous servant to Wokingham and I completely understand why he wants to move on. He has made no secret of the fact that at this stage of his career he desperately wants to win something and obviously he has a far better chance at Wycombe this season than here at Wokingham".

New manager at YEOVIL TOWN, Brian Hall, has been quick to delve into the transfer market to try and solve Yeovil's goalscoring problem. Hall has signed strikers Paul Miller on loan from Wimbledon and Colin 'Harry' Sayers from Westland Sports.

The duo made their debut in the 2-1 victory over Hitchin at Huish with Miller scoring the winning goal and Sayers picking up the Man of the Match award. The attendance of 1,704 takes Yeovil's home average VOL gate to 1,990 while following the 2,473 attendance at Loakes Park for the Wycombe/Yeovil clash, Wycombe's home average now stands at 1,062. Large away attendances are certainly not the norm for Yeovil. Under 200 people saw their games at Walthamstow, Hayes and Hendon and apart from the game at Wycombe, their only 'away' game to attract more than a 1,000 spectators came against Worthing, although even that game was played at Huish because Worthing's ground had been closed by the League.

Wycombe are due to visit the reopened Woodside Road, home of WORTHING, during March. The Sussex club, who are facing a relegation battle, have recently sacked three players for disciplinary reasons. Manager Keith Rowley has released goalkeeper Simon Steele, midfielder Jimmy Quinn and striker Danny Deans. Steele was immediately snapped up by Bognor as a replacement for Alistair Sperring who is now unavailable on Saturdays due to work commitments, while Quinn, a former player with Clyde in Scotland, has signed for Maidstone United. Worthing have totalled close to 100 disciplinary points this season - Steele and Quinn had been responsible for 57 of these.

Worthing were the victims of WALTHAMSTOW AVENUE's first league victory of the season. Avenue won 3-2 at Woodside Road after their coach had been delayed by traffic jams which held the kick-off up for 20 minutes. Manager Trevor Harvey included nine new players in the line up. Avenue have subsequently gone on to claim their first home point of the season following a 2-2 result with Croydon at the re-opened Green Pond Road.

With the April 30th deadline creeping nearer there are a few clubs in the Premier Division still trying to complete the necessary work in obtaining an 'A' grade required to maintain their Premier Division status next season. SLOUGH TOWN currently hold a 'C' grading and if no further work is done would face relegation to Division 2. The major obstacle for 'The Rebels' is the erecting of a non see-through fence on the boundaries opposite the main stand and behind one of the goals. The work will be carried out by club volunteers including Chairman Mervyn Jones. He said "We must ensure that Slough remain in the Premier Division - if only long enough to enable us to gain promotion to the GMVC". Other clubs in danger of relegation from the Premier Division include Bognor and Barking who both lie in the top half of the table.

HARROW BOROUGH, the solitary league visitors to Loakes Park during March, have signed American World Cup player John Kerr. Boro' manager Keith Chamberlain has also signed former Swansea City defender Tony Guard, who has just returned from Australia. Kerr made his debut against Bishop's Stortford and scored the winning goal in Boro's 2-1 success.

FARNBOROUGH TOWN, whose 5-0 defeat at Harrow and 3-0 home loss to Barking during February has killed off their chances of catching Wycombe, have signed Neal Stanley on loan from the Wanderers. Stanley has been on loan to Wokingham for the previous three months and Wokingham had agreed a fee with Wycombe but Neal refused the terms offered.

Up to and including Tuesday 24th February 1987

SEASON BY SEASON

1936-7

SUMMARY by Steve Maguire.

The Wanderers finished the 1936/37 season just short of what was considered to be their normal performance - a point per game. This was thanks mainly to a good run at the end of the season, during which time we beat Kingstonian (the eventual Champions) and did the double over the much fancied Dulwich Hamlet.

We picked up a cup early in the season when Slough were beaten in the Windsor Hospital Cup (the Final being held over from the previous season) and we had reasonable runs in the two main cup competitions. In an F A Cup tie at Aylesbury the Free Press reported 'wild enthusiasm' amongst Wycombe supporters when we scored. We also had good support in our other F A Cup games. A number of coaches were run to Banbury and a special train went to Hayes where a combination of a poor performance and the dismal weather made it a miserable afternoon for those supporting Wycombe.

Support was not always so good at matches, although early in the season the Free Press commented on the number of ladies present. The fixture against London Caledonians at Kentish Town was witnessed by only 200 people, and the planned special train to see the game at Gorleston, near Yarmouth, had to be cancelled. In the end the Wycombe contingent at the game was just eight committee men and four supporters, but the attendance was a record for the Eastern League club - as were the receipts of £27.

After winning the replay with Gorleston we looked to be on our way out of the Amateur Cup when Nunhead were leading 2-0 with just ten minutes to go, but a last minute equaliser from Ernie Atkinson saved the day. In extra-time we scored twice more to win a place in the Third Round but at a price - goalkeeper Ron Smith broke his leg (although he played throughout the match) and missed the rest of the season. Reserve 'keeper Norman Holliman was called up for the trip to Teeside to face Northern League side, Stockton, but he did not have a happy game as we crashed out of the competition.

In the County Cup we were involved in a marathon tie with Slough which was eventually settled by an own goal after four games. We beat Wallingford at Maidenhead in the semi-final but lost in the Final on the same ground to Windsor, who were recording their first Berks & Bucks triumph for 26 years.

During the season the Isthmian League v Spartan League game was held at Loakes Park with Ernie Atkinson representing the Isthmians. Another Wycombe player, Dick Cox also played for the Isthmian League against a French XI at Le Harve. The Wanderers also supplied two players, Bill 'Jock' McCullum and Eddie Carr, for the League's Reserve side.

BARNET have been installed by Bookmakers William Hill as the 10/11 favourites to take the Conference title. They have also been quoted as 11/4 favourites for the Trophy and 6/1 favourites for the Conference/Trophy 'double'. SCARBOROUGH at 5/2 are second favourites for the title with ENFIELD (5/1), ALTRINCHAM (15/2) and MAIDSTONE (10/1) are also in the running. At the beginning of the season Barnet at 33/1 and Scarborough 50/1 for the title were the bookies favorites for relegation!

Fighting against relegation this season are at least half a dozen clubs who have the prospect of some nerve jangling fixtures towards the end of the season. GATESHEAD, who have not won a Conference fixture since new manager George Smith took over in October, are almost certainly doomed for a quick return to the Multipart League. The other newcomer to struggle this season, WELLING UNITED, have enjoyed an about turn in fortunes recently. A 2-0 victory at Enfield and a 4-2 home success against Boston has shifted the club out of the bottom two for the first time this season. Welling's top scorer Gary Abbott has aroused the interest of several League clubs, including Sheffield Wednesday and Charlton Athletic.

NUNEATON BOROUGH, who escaped relegation last season on goal difference from you know who, are now firmly back in trouble. Boro' have not won a league game since November and threw away two points against Dagenham recently when they conceded two goals in last two minutes to draw 3-3. Also in trouble are FRICKLEY ATHLETIC, who finished as runners-up to Enfield last season, and NORTHWICH VICTORIA whose new manager Cliff Roberts and coach Barry Whitebread have signed Stuart Parker, Dave Thompson and Jimmy Blackhurst from their old club, South Liverpool to try and halt the slide of the Cheshire Club.

Not quite in relegation trouble (yet!) are WEALDSTONE whose new manager Colin Meldrum had a nightmare GMVC baptism at home to Boston United when 'The Stones' conceded four goals inside eight minutes during the second half to lose 4-0. Meldrum is a former professional with Arsenal, Watford, Reading and Cambridge United and has been appointed by Wealdstone on a part-time basis. He was a player with Cambridge when they were elected to the Football League in 1970 and has also worked as assistant manager at Scarborough, Frickley and more recently Barnet.

Despite rumours that Birmingham City had signed Anton Vircavs from CHELTENHAM TOWN the ex-Wycombe central defender is still at Whaddon Road and has been promoted to Club Captain. Anton has also been selected for the England Semi-Pro side to play Wales in March while Cheltenham's manager John Murphy has written to the Welsh F A nominating his leading goalscorer, Chris Townsend, for consideration in the Welsh non-League squad. Townsend is, however, unlikely to be considered as the Welsh F A stipulate that players must not only qualify as being Welsh, but also play for a Welsh club. Murphy has argued that if the same procedure was applied to the Senior Welsh team it would rule out the majority of the team, including the likes of Mark Hughes, Neville Southall and Ian Rush.

The number of GMVC clubs involved in the quarter-finals of the F A Trophy this season is the lowest representation from the national league for three seasons but the draw still allows the semi-finals to be made entirely of GMVC clubs for the fourth season running. The third round tie between Cheltenham and Kidderminster, which was switched to a Sunday for an experiment, attracted a gate of over 3,500 (Cheltenham's highest gate since 1956) to see the Harriers triumph 3-2.

Pride of place in the Southern League during February goes to FAREHAM TOWN who defeated Scarborough away from home (2-0) in the F A Trophy. The Hampshire side have never previously passed the First Round Proper stage and so far this season they have beaten Epsom, Walton & Hersham, Farnborough, Saltash and Bromsgrove before their triumph at Scarborough earnt them a place in the quarter final. On the league front, Fareham have yet to win away from home but still have 22 league fixtures to complete.

With four clubs going down from the Premier Division, also in the relegation zone are BASINGSTOKE TOWN who have recently signed ex-Wycombe 'action-man' Byron Walton. Byron scored on his debut in their 5-3 victory over Fareham Town. The signing was made by Alan Humphries who moved from the assistant spot at Slough Town to Basingstoke at the start of the year. Another ex-Blue, Barry Silkman, also opted for Southern League football, this time with CHELMSFORD CITY, but following a brief spell in the first team he has now been released.

Ken Knighton, the man who took Sunderland into the First Division in 1980, has been appointed manager of TROWBRIDGE TOWN who currently lie in 8th place in the Southern Division. Knighton, formerly manager at Orient and Dagenham, succeeds Les Alderman as manager at Trowbridge who resigned when he became disillusioned with Club policies. The final straw for Alderman came when not one Club official made the midweek journey to Aylesbury United for a Bill Dellow Cup tie.

On the subject of AYLESBURY UNITED, 'The Ducks' made their F A Trophy exit against Dagenham after a replay at The Buckingham Road Stadium. A record crowd of over 1,500 witnessed Aylesbury take the lead but a quick double from 'The Daggers' ended their Wembley hopes. In the Bill Dellow Cup, United drew their Third Round tie at Dorchester and now require an additional game to their over booked schedule - an away tie with Waterlooville awaits the winner. Aylesbury still have 20 league fixtures to complete plus at least three cup ties in the final 9 weeks of the season.

THE MULTIPART LEAGUE

The success story at BURTON ALBION continues with manager Brian Fidler claimly the Manager of the Month award for the second successive month as well as taking his team to the quarter-finals of the F A Trophy and to the latter stages of four other cup competitions. Albion progressed to the last eight of the Trophy with a 1-0 victory over Northern League Whitley Bay, in front of over 1,700 spectators at Eton Park.

There was a shock in store for SOUTH LIVERPOOL when they appointed local man Jimmy Weild to take over as manager from Cliff Roberts. On the day of his first match in charge - a postponed game against Buxton - Weild decided that the step up from local football to the Multipart League was too much for him and resigned before his duties started.

Former Manchester City and England goalkeeper, Joe Corrigan, has joined the Board of Directors at MACCLESFIELD TOWN. His coaching ability has already proved fruitful for 17 year old Macclesfield 'keeper Peter Stanier who has been under Corrigan's wing for the past two years. Stanier signed for Macclesfield as a stand-in 'keeper in December but signed professional terms with 3rd Division Bury at the end of January.

The Multipart League representative game against the Vauxhall/Opel League which was cancelled in January due to the bad weather, has now been re-arranged to take place on Sunday 15th March at Hendon F C, K O 2.30pm.
